CUSTOMS.

These duties are collected under and agreeably to the directions of the Ordinances No. 17 of 1869 and No. 14 of 1871, by which all former laws relating to Customs are repealed, consolidated, and amended. Ordinance No. 22 of 1873 and Proclamation of 10th November, 1877; and under Ordinance No. 22 of 1877, by which a royalty of 25 cents is levied on every cwt. of plumbago exported beyond seas. Warehouse Rent charged upon goods placed in the Queen's Warehouses is levied by Government Notices dated 20th October, 1876, and 6th July, 1877, under authority of the 13th clause of the Ordinance No. 17 of 1869. Export duties are collected under Ordinance No. 9 of 1882.

PORT AND HARBOUR DUES.

Port Dues are levied under the Ordinances No. 17 of 1869 and No. 14 of 1871. The rates are eight cents per ton inwards, and eight cents per ton outwards on loaded vessels. Under this head are also brought to account receipts for the hire of Government boats and moorings, and half pilotage fees recovered under the Ordinance No. 6 of 1865. For Colombo harbour a special tariff was published under Proclamation dated 7th November, 1882.

LAND SALES.

Under this head are included the receipts derived from the sale of Crown lands and cinnamon gardens, under the rules laid down in the Minutes of the Governor of the 14th January, 1857, and 11th May, 1875, and the half-improved value of land under the provisions of the Ordinance No. 12 of 1840, also the proceeds of sale of paddy lands in the irrigation districts, under the Minutes of 27th February, 1857, and 21st May, 1868, and grants of land under the Minute of 8th August, 1844.

LAND REVENUE.

Rent or Tax on Paddy.

The receipts classed under this head are derived from the rent or tax of one-half, one-third, one-fourth, one-fifth, one-eighth, one-tenth, one-fourteenth, or one-twentieth of the produce, according to the tenure on which the lands are held.

The tax is levied on the authority of immemorial usage, and is particularly recognized by the Proclamations of the 3rd September, 1801, the 22nd April, 1803, and the 21st November, 1818, and the Ordinances No. 14 of 1840 and No. 29 of 1865.

In the Central Province this tax was, till 1826, levied by an annual assessment of the crop of each harvest, and was chiefly collected in kind. In the districts adjacent to the town of Kandy, the assessment was then commuted with the consent of the proprietors, for the annual payment of a given quantity of grain, which arrangement continued in force till the end of 1830, when that system was further extended by giving the proprietors the option of paying the assessment, either at a fixed rate of money, or in kind, and even of redeeming the tax in perpetuity by payment of the assessment for 20 years. In 1832, the first settlement having expired, a renewal of the commutation assessment was entered into throughout the former commuted Districts.

In the North-Central, North-Western, and Southern Provinces the renting system alone is adopted. In the Northern Province the average of the renting and commuting systems is nearly equal. In the Eastern Province both systems prevail. Commutation was facilitated by Ordinance No. 11 of 1878, and has been effected all over the Western Province and in part of the Southern Province.

Rent or Tax on Fine Grain.

Recognized by the Proclamations of the 3rd September, 1801, and the 22nd April, 1803 (which impose generally a tax of one-tenth on the produce of all high lands, viz., of lands not adapted to the cultivation of paddy), and recognized by the Ordinances Nos. 14 of 1840 and 29 of 1865. In the Western Province this tax is levied in the old Kandyan divisions only according to the tenure on which lands are held, or according to the ancient usages and customs of the country. The proceeds sale of illicit cultivation of fine grain on Crown land are also brought to account under this head.

In the Northern Province the rate of tax is one-fifth for jungle cultivation, and one-tenth for all the others.

All sales of importance and value should be advertized in the Gazette and local papers; and notice of intended sale affixed at the Custom House of the Port. The account of wreck sold is to be made in form No. 3 (annexed.)

6.—Salvage, clauses 21 to 26.

The decisions of questions as to salvage, if the parties cannot agree, must be determined by the Court having jurisdiction in that behalf; but the Receiver has important duties in endeavouring to settle salvage claims amicably, in providing for what may be due by detaining the property saved; in releasing the property on proper security being given; in selling the property when necessary to satisfy the claim of salvors; and in apportioning money paid in satisfaction of such claims; and the Receiver will recollect that, whilst providing for the claims of bonâ fide salvors, he must, as far as he can, protect property against vexatious and improper claims.

The essentials of salvage service are,—

(a) The degree of danger from which the lives or property are rescued.
(b) The value of the property saved.
(c) The risk incurred by the salvors.
(d) The value of any property by the use of which the services are rendered, and the danger it was exposed to.
(e) The skill shewn in rendering the service.
(f) The time and labour occupied.

The salvage should be in proportion to the use of these essentials; but where scarcely any, or only the last exist, and the same is little more than mere work or labour, it should be rewarded accordingly.

The amount of reward should not however increase in direct proportion to the value of the property; and as a general rule it may be borne in mind, that the Courts of Admiralty very seldom, if ever, give more than one-half the value of the property saved.

7.—With a view to encourage salvors and finders of unclaimed wreck and drift goods sold and taken charge of by Receivers under provisions of clauses 19 and 28, the following rewards may be given, viz.:—

Upon the nett value of property of Rs. 25 or under (two-thirds)	$\frac{2}{3}$
When it exceeds Rs. 25 and under Rs. 50 (one-half)	$\frac{1}{2}$
When of Rs. 50 and above (one-third)	$\frac{1}{3}$

8.—Delivery of Property to Owners.

On payment of all sums due for salvage, duties, fees, and expenses, the Receiver will deliver up all property which comes into his possession or custody, and the proceeds of such parts of it as may have been sold, to any person who proves himself, to the satisfaction of the Receiver, to be the owner of such property, or agent duly appointed by him, taking receipts for the same. The owner of the ship being responsible for the cargo, and the master of the ship having, as the servant of the owner, the legal custody thereof, the Receiver will treat the master, when present, as the agent of the owner, not only of the ship, but also of the cargo; unless and until it is clearly proved, that the owners of either have put an end to such agency.

9.—Accounts and Returns.

The Receiver will keep a Report Book according to form No. 1, in which he will enter the particulars of every description of article taken into his custody. The reference numbers are to commence with No. 1 on 1st January of each year.

The reporting of goods taken possession of for the Receiver should be made according to form No. 2, and the sale account per form No. 3.

The Quarterly Returns, as per form No. 4, are to be forwarded through the Superintendent of Wrecks; and the nett proceeds of all wreck the property of Government as unclaimed, is to be paid into the General Treasury, quarterly; the Treasurer being required to receive such moneys on account of wrecks.

By His Excellency's command,

Colonial Secretary's Office,
Colombo, 6th February, 1862.

REMARKS.

No. 1.—Arrears of Revenue. The decrease is due to the prevailing depression and the consequent difficulty of realizing the full value of securities hypothecated by Renters in default.

" 2.—Customs. The decrease is caused by the decline in the importation of grain and other dutiable goods, as also in the exportation of plumbago.

" 3.—Port and Harbour Dues. An increase in the number and tonnage of vessels inwards and outwards accounts for the increase of receipts under this head.

" 4.—Land Sales. The extent of land sold in 1882 was less than that sold in 1881.

" 5.—Land Revenue. The increase under the head "Paddy" is due to good crops harvested in the North-Western and Southern Provinces. Under the head "Fine Grain" there was a decrease in the North-Western and Northern Provinces, due partly to an abundance of paddy in the former, and to a bad season in the latter Province. There has also been a decrease under the head "Gardens rented" in the Western Province, owing, probably, to the prevailing depression.

" 6.—Rents, exclusive of Land. Owing to more punctual payment of instalments there is a slight increase under the head of "Toll Rents" for 1882, as compared with 1881, although the rents generally were sold for the year 1882 for a smaller sum than for 1881. The decrease in rent of "Government Buildings" is chiefly due to a reduction in the rent of the premises occupied by the Wharf and Warehouse Company, Limited.

" 7.—Licenses. The decrease in the receipt under "Arrack, &c." is partly due to the sales having realized less for 1882 than for the preceding year, and partly to default of payment of instalments within the year. There has however been an increase in receipts from Stills and Chanks, which partially compensated for the above decrease. The increase in licenses for "Retail of Salt" is only nominal, as a corresponding decrease is shown under the head "Sale of Government Property;" in 1881 salt in Jaffna District was sold in aumany.

No. 8.—Stamps. The large decrease under this head is owing to the general depression in the Island trade and industries.

" 9.—Taxes. The delay in fixing by Proclamation of Government the rates of assessment taxes leviable in the Central Province reduced the collection under this head for 1881, and the collection for 1882 consequently shows an increase as compared with the former year.

" 10.—Postage. The revenue under this head has also been affected by the prevailing depression.

" 11.—Fines and Forfeitures. A portion of the amount deposited as security by the Jaffna and Agricultural Company was forfeited for non-fulfilment of their agreement with the Government, and the amount was brought to credit under this head : hence the increase.

" 12.—Government Vessels. The increase is owing to there having been no interruption to the working of the Colonial Steamer "Serendib" as in the preceding year.

" 13.—Sale of Government Property. The decrease in Salt is only nominal : there was really an increase of revenue from sale of this article; a portion of the receipts on account of sale of salt was classified under the head "Licenses." The decrease in "Arrack and Rum" is the result of there having been no Pearl Fishery in 1882 ; that under the head "Colonial Store" is owing to the transfer in 1881 of the value of stationery to Revenue ; and under "Timber" to diminished demand for timber.

" 14.—Reimbursements. The increase is chiefly in the recovery of the cost of Irrigation Works, the season having proved more favourable than in the preceding year. The decrease is chiefly in Survey fees owing to a diminution in the extent of land sold, and in cost of Police within the Municipality, owing to the amounts due for a portion of 1882 not having been paid within the year. The other items of receipts are casual and fluctuating.

" 15.—Miscellaneous Receipts. The decrease is chiefly under the head "Deficiency of Troops," no refund on this account having been received in 1882. The other items of receipts are casual and fluctuating, and call for no remarks

" 16.—Interest. The increase is chiefly in interest received by the Crown Agents on short loans.

" 17.—Pearl Fishery. There was no Pearl Fishery this year. The amount recovered in 1882 was the rent of the Fishery in the Tamblagam Lake.

" 19.—Railway Receipts. The stagnation of trade and the industries of the Island continue to affect the receipts under this head. The Matalé Branch, opened in October, 1880, is working at a loss, the receipts in 1882 being Rs. 4,225·52 less than the working expenses.

" 20.—Telegraph Receipts. The small decrease on this head of receipt hardly calls for any observation.

Increase on Provisional Salaries - - -		-	—		7718	75
48—Crown Agents.
Decrease on Provisional Salaries - - -		-	—		0	64

49.—Pensions.—The decrease of expenditure under this head is the nett production on pensions payable in England and India.

50.—Revenue Services.—A large expenditure was incurred in 1881 on account of the importation of salt from India, and on the Pearl Fishery. This expenditure was not necessary in 1882, and these are the chief causes of the reduction of the expenditure under this head.

51.—Administration of Justice.—The decrease under this head of service is due to the fact that owing to comparatively short Sessions of the Supreme Court the charge for batta to witnesses, &c., was less in amount than that incurred during the preceding year. A larger decrease of expenditure would have appeared were it not that the charge for stationery was this year for the first time debited to this head of service.

52.—Ecclesiastical.—Stationery issued to the Ecclesiastical Department was this year charged under this head instead of being issued free as heretofore: hence the small increase.

53.—Charitable Allowances.—A grant for relief of some of the people in the Bintenna district was made in 1881. No similar grant was required during 1882: hence the decrease under this head.

54.—Education.—The small decrease under this head is the nett savings on the several sub-heads of expenditure allowed for this service.

55.—Hospitals and Sanitation.—Wages of attendants, &c., were brought to account in 1882 under this head of service instead of under the head "Provisional Salaries:" this accounts for the apparent increase.

56.—Police Service.—The decrease is accounted for partly by the savings effected on cost of uniform and partly because the votes of 1881 were debited with cost of arms, &c., obtained from England in 1880.

57.—Prison Service.—An increase in the number of prisoners maintained in the Convict Establishment and in the Provincial Prisons, caused the increase of expenditure under this head.

58.—Rent.—The small reduction under this head is the result of savings effected by the Departments of the Government Agent, Western Province, and the Registrar-General.

59.—Transport.—The decrease is caused by a diminution of expenditure under this head effected by most of the Departments.

60.—Conveyance of Mails.—Compared with the gross expenditure of the department under this head, the increase is so small that it hardly calls for any observation.

61 & 62.—Works and Buildings.—Roads, Streets, and Bridges.—Owing to the falling off in revenue the expenditure sanctioned for 1882 under these heads was smaller than that for the preceding year; the actual expenditure is therefore proportionately less.

63.—Miscellaneous Services.—The cost of taking the Census in 1881 contributed to swell the expenditure of that year under this head: hence the apparent decrease in 1882.

64.—Interest.—The first half-yearly contribution of the Sinking Fund for the extinction of the loans raised on debentures for the construction of the Colombo Harbour Works which became due in November, 1882, was paid this year. This has caused an increase of expenditure.

65.—Colonial Store.—This apparent decrease has been caused by the cost of stationery issued to the several Public Departments being now charged and paid for from the votes allowed to such Departments instead of being paid as hitherto in a lump sum under this head.

66.—Contribution towards Military Expenditure.—The expenditure shows a reduction this year because there was no charge as in 1881 on account of arms, &c., for the Volunteers.

67.—Government Vessels.—The Colonial Steamer "Serendib" did not require such extensive repairs in 1882 as in the preceding year: hence the reduction in expenditure.

68.—Refund of Duties, etc.—This is a fluctuating expenditure, resulting this year in an excess over the expenditure of the preceding year.

69.—Lands taken for Government Purposes.—The same remark as the foregoing applies to this head of expenditure.

70.—Immigration.—The decrease is consequent upon the falling off in the number of immigrant labourers from Southern India.

71.—Railway Services.—The decrease is chiefly owing to the annual contribution to the Sinking Fund for the redemption of debentures issued on loans obtained for the construction of the railway from Colombo to Kandy having ceased to be paid from the general revenue, sufficient funds being in the hands of the trustees to meet all claims until the final extinction of the debt.

72.—Telegraph Services.—The decrease is chiefly owing to the salaries of the officers having been brought to account in 1882 under the head "Provisional Salaries" instead of under this head of service as in the preceding year.

73.—Exchange.—The decrease under this head of expenditure is due to the fact that almost all the charges incurred in England were debited in 1882 to their respective votes at the current rate of exchange.

t	3 6	2 9	The duties of the Queen's Advocate are, in many respects, analogous to those of the Attorney-General in England, though in the other there seems to be a close resemblance to the office of Lord Advocate in Scotland. The Queen's Advocate acts on all occasions as the Legal Adviser of the Government. The Legislative enactments of the Government are prepared by him; all Contracts and Deeds entered into, by, or made in favour of the Government, are submitted to him for his opinion, and executed under his directions. He also acts, after the manner of the Lord Advocate in Scotland, as Grand Juror and Public Prosecutor. He instructs Magistrates in Criminal proceedings, and informations in the Supreme and District Courts are in his name, and prepared under his superintendence. He appears for the Crown in all Civil cases in which it is interested.

* The estimated number of "adults under missionary influence" here given includes 3 classes of persons, viz.:—1st, the regular members of the congregations; 2nd, nominal Christians who occasionally attend our services, but who are not reckoned as members of the congregations; and 3rd, adult candidates for Baptism. The return does not include the large numbers of people addressed during the year at our out-door preaching stations and Mission Rooms, and who have thus, to some extent, come under missionary influence.

† The estimated number of children under missionary influence here given includes all the children belonging to the Mission Schools, but not children who do not belong to our schools.

Fixed Deposits.

Deposits of Rs. 500 or upwards are received for fixed periods upon which interest is allowed. Receipts (not transferable) are granted for such deposits, and the amount can only be drawn at maturity, when interest ceases and the receipt must be then surrendered, duly endorsed. If deposits are intended to be renewed, the receipts, endorsed by the depositor, should, to prevent loss of interest, be sent in to the Corporation at due date.

2.—No account is allowed to be overdrawn, unless by special arrangement.

3.—Cheques must be drawn on the Corporation's form, and must not be postdated, extraneous matter inserted, nor any other alteration made.

4.—It is requested that no entries be made in the Pass Books, but that they be sent in frequently to the Bank for the purpose of being written up from the Ledger.

5.—The Corporation do not recognize Trusts, and accounts are only opened in the individual names of one or more persons.

6.—The Corporation will not hold themselves responsible for the payment of Cheques which may have been advised as lost or mislaid. They will do all in their power to protect their customers, but do not guarantee the non-payment of such Cheques.

7.—Cheques, &c., on other Banks sent in after 2 P.M.,—or 12·30 P.M. on Saturdays—will not be sent out for collection until the following business day.

8.—All accounts are balanced half-yearly, viz., 30th June and 31st December.

9.—A commission of Rs. 5·25 is charged half-yearly on all accounts, the balances of which do not average Rs. 500.

RETURN OF PRISONS AND PRISONERS.

REPLIES TO THE QUESTIONS COMPILED FROM THE RETURNS OF THE RESPECTIVE SUPERINTENDENTS.

QUESTION I.

If the prison is on the separate system, is the separation complete? And if not, what is the separation enforced by day and night, respectively?

The male prisons at Węlikaḍa and Slave Island and Breakwater Jails are on the separate system, but for a few months of the year, in the case of the two last-named prisons, some well-conducted prisoners have been allowed to sleep in association, owing to the increased number of men required on the works during the very busy season on the Breakwater. Prisoners placed in a refractory cell for misconduct are in separation by day as well as by night.

Juvenile offenders are in Colombo and Kandy kept entirely apart from adults both by day and night.

At Slave Island there is a ward for men under medical observation prior to removal to hospital.

At Kandy there are 282 cells, but, owing to the large number of committals to the prisons of the Island, it has been found necessary to retain the wards.

At Mahara, Kandy (old) prison, Gallé and Jaffna, there are from 40 to 100 cells at each prison, which are used for locking up the longer-sentenced or indifferently-conducted prisoners, the rest being kept in association wards.

At the other prisons of the Island there are fewer cells, as stated in answer to Query III.

In all prisons males are invariably separated from females, by day as well as by night.

At Węlikaḍa and Gallé known prostitutes are kept in a separate yard by day, and at night locked up in separate cells. At Kandy also prostitutes are kept apart from other females. All other female convicts are kept in association. Unconvicted prisoners are kept apart from convicted prisoners. Hulftsdorp and Kandy (old) prisons are almost exclusively devoted to the safe custody of unconvicted prisoners, only a few convicts being kept at these prisons to attend to jail services.

In other prisons, the unconvicted are locked up at night separately, as a rule, and every endeavour is made in the absence of divisional yards to keep them apart by day. This is the more easily done as the majority of convicted prisoners in such jails are at work outside for many hours.

At Węlikaḍa, Slave Island, Breakwater, and Mahara, no unconvicted prisoners are, as a rule, ever lodged.

Rules for further classification cannot at present be insisted on, but the more serious class of offenders and juveniles (of whom the number is as a rule small) are locked up separately, so far as the accommodation and number in prison will admit of.

QUESTION II.

If not on the separate system, what provision is there for the supervision of the prisoners while in association?

The males are supervised by male officers of various grades, and the females by matrons, in all jails.

QUESTIONS III. AND IV.

How many cells are there; and how many associated wards? Taking the average number of prisoners in jail, how many cubic feet of space are there for each prisoner during the hours of sleep?

QUESTION V.

How are the prisoners classified?

The classification in the Ceylon Prisons is as follows:—

(1) Males, convicted, who are sub-divided as follows:—
- a Penal stage or rigorous hard labour.
- b Second stage or industrial hard labour.
- c Third stage or industrial light labour.
- d Road Ordinance defaulters.
- e Simple imprisonment only.

(2) Females, convicted, in same class as males.

(3) Males, unconvicted, who are sub-divided as follows:—
- a Debtors, Crown.
- b Debtors, private.
- c Persons committed in default of bail, witnesses, &c.
- d Do. for further examination by Justice of the Peace
- e Do. for trial by Superior Courts.
- f Do. to await sentence and pending appeal.
- g Accused persons arrested on warrants in transit to other stations.
- h Suspected Lunatics committed for medical observation.

[At Colombo, Kandy, Galle, Jaffna, and Batticaloa no lunatics are now committed to prison, proper and separate houses of observation having been provided, which are placed under the control of the Medical Department.]

(4) Females, unconvicted.

These are the recognised divisions for classification, but (except separating males from females) it is not possible in the present stage of the Island prisons to invariably keep these classes distinct from one another, except as stated in reply to Query 1.

QUESTION VI.

Is penal labour—that is, labour by treadmill, crank, or shot-drill—in force?

Shot-drill only is in force in all prisons for convicted male prisoners, except Road Ordinance defaulters and offenders committed under provisions of local Ordinances for acts not in themselves otherwise criminal.

QUESTION VII.

If so, during what periods of imprisonment, in respect of what classes of prisoners, and during how many hours, is such penal labour enforced? In stating hours of treadwheel labour, give, first, the total time on and off at the wheel, &c.; secondly, the length of spells and intervals of rest.

All classes of convicted prisoners in the penal stage, and who are not exempted therefrom by the Medical Officer on account of bodily infirmity, perform shot-drill for two hours in the forenoon and two hours in the afternoon of every weekday.

The Superintendents all report that this rule is followed, except where its relaxation has been authorized.

QUESTION VIII.

What kind of labour, other than penal labour, is in use?

Within the walls of the prison:—
- a All jail services, including cooking for convicts.
- b Coir-beating, stone-breaking, coir-twisting, and pingo-carrying.
- c At Welikada, carpentering, printing, mat- and brush-making are carried on. All the clothing for the prisons of the Island is made up at this prison, besides the uniform for the officers and civil guards of the Convict Establishment. There is also a blacksmiths' and tinsmiths' shop at Welikada.
- d At Kandy the convicts are still employed in constructing the new prison buildings, without any aid from free artizans or labourers; also, breaking stone into metal for sale to the Public Works Department
- e At Negombo, brush-, basket-, and broom-making.

Convict labour has been extensively employed outside the Jails, as will be seen from reply to Query IX.

QUESTION IX.

If the prisoners are employed beyond the walls of the jail, state—

(1) On what kind of work they are so employed?

At Kandy the stone, sand, &c., required for the new prison were procured. Levelling the police barrack grounds, work at the Kachchéri premises, clearing out silt from the Kandy lake, repairs to roads and Government Civil Hospital grounds, were carried out by convict labour. Prisoners were employed in improving the grounds round the Government buildings and residences and at the Kachchéri, Government Civil Hospital, Fountain, and clearing out silt from Kandy Lake, at which 40 men are employed daily.

At the New Lunatic Asylum temporary prison, convict artizans were engaged in completing the buildings as well as in preparing the woodwork for Chilaw and Slave Island prison extensions

At Slave Island and Breakwater the convicts were employed as heretofore on the Breakwater works, and have done a large quantity of work, the béton blocks being entirely made, and the materials to a great extent prepared, by convicts. This work has been carried out with the same success as reported in previous years.

At Mahara the large stones for the Breakwater works were reduced and loaded into waggons by convicts.

At Negombo the prisoners were employed at reclaiming the lake, and constructing roads for the Local Board.

At Galle levelling and weeding the esplanade; also opening a road.

At Hambantota various works connected with the Salt Department, such as building and repairing stores, collecting, stacking, removing, heaping, weighing, receiving, and issuing salt; also clearing lewayas.

At Kurunégala the convicts were employed at work in the tank and roads within the town.

At Jaffna, working at the Friend-in-Need Society's Hospital, Kachchéri, public premises, and in small alterations to the prison premises.

At Batticaloa, in cleaning and scavenging, making and repairing roads, levelling church-yard and work at Civil Hospital.

Besides these special works, the prisoners at outstations are employed in breaking road metal, cleaning and scavenging public latrines and premises, keeping the minor roads in order, planting Government lands with ornamental trees, punkah-pulling, and sundry other small works.

(2) How are they supervised?

On the Breakwater works and at Mahara by the Assistant Superintendents, Jailers, Deputy Jailers, and the usual staff of party officers.

At Welikada the parties are visited by the Superintendent, Assistant Superintendent, as well as the Jailer and Deputy Jailers frequently during the day.

At the Welikada, Slave Island, Breakwater, and Mahara prisons there is the usual staff of overseers, sub-overseers, and guards, besides the superior officers named above.

Every prison has a Jailer, who visits out-door working parties frequently.

At Kandy, Galle, Hambantota, and Jaffna the convicts are supervised by overseers in addition to the ordinary guards.

At other prisons there are only guards or peons, varying according to the number of prisoners—as a rule, one officer to every ten convicts at work.

(4) How are the profits of their labour accounted for?

The value of all labour rendered to the Breakwater works, and at Mahara quarry by convicts, is reported to the Auditor-General monthly, and debited to the Breakwater.

An account of the labour contributed to each work is kept, from which the reply to Query XI. is compiled, but no money passes, nor is the labour paid for, except where articles manufactured in prisons are sold, when the actual cash realized is paid into the nearest Kachchéri and brought to account as revenue.

QUESTION XIV.

Is there, or are there, any Chaplain or Chaplains of any, and what, religious persuasions?

There are no Prison Chaplains, but accredited ministers of all persuasions are admitted on application.

QUESTION XV.

Are religious services regularly, or otherwise, performed for the benefit of the prisoners of any, and if any, what religious persuasion?

At Welikada, Slave Island, Breakwater, Borella Hospital, Hulfsdorp, and Kandy (new) Jails frequent services are held both by Protestant and Roman Catholic Ministers, on Sundays; and religious instruction is also given by Catechists of various denominations regularly. At other prisons such services are held whenever any Minister expresses a wish to do so.

QUESTION XVI.

Are Roman Catholic Priests and Dissenting Ministers allowed free access to prisoners of their own persuasion? And are they apprised when prisoners of their respective persuasions enter the prison?

They are allowed free access, but are not informed when any such prisoners enter the prison, unless at the express wish of a prisoner.

QUESTION XVII.

What provision is made for the education of prisoners?

At Welikada education is confined to the juveniles by paid teachers, for three hours a day on week-days, and three hours on Sundays.

At Slave Island and Breakwater teachers appointed by Government hold school from 12 to 4 o'clock every Sunday.

At Negombo teachers appointed by Government hold school from 6 A.M. to 8 A.M., on week days, and on Sundays from 6 A.M. to 10 A.M.

QUESTION XVIII.

On what conditions are remissions of imprisonment granted?

Good conduct, by which is meant industrial good behaviour in matters of discipline, and morality. Remissions of terms of imprisonment are granted in proportion to the number of good conduct marks earned by prisoners. Ordinarily, the number of marks a prisoner can earn in a week is nine, and the highest remission a prisoner can obtain by uniform good conduct is two-ninths of the whole term of imprisonment to which he was sentenced, exclusive of the period of three months passed in the penal stage. When suitable work is available, all well-conducted, long-sentenced prisoners, who have been over two years in jail, are eligible to earn one additional mark a week on becoming efficient artizans. After they have earned a further instalment of 1,040 marks such workmen are eligible to earn two marks per week extra, and upon earning another instalment of 1,144 marks they become further eligible to earn three marks extra a week; but the number of these is very limited.

A prisoner sentenced to three months' imprisonment, or under, is not eligible for any remission of his or her sentence

QUESTION XIX.

Have Coroners' inquests been held on every occasion of a death in prison during the past year? And what were the verdicts?

Every death is reported to the Coroner, with a medical certificate as to the cause. Except at Colombo, formal inquests are not as a rule held, unless under special circumstances, but no dead body is interred without the Coroner's permission.

The number of deaths and inquests held have been as follows:—

QUESTION XX.

(1) What was the sanitary state of the prisons during the year 1882?

Satisfactory.

(2) What were the prevailing diseases?

Fever, Diarrhœa, and Dysentery.

* Exclusive of those executed.

† This prison is the sanatarium of the Department where old, weakly, and sickly convicts are sent.

QUESTION XXI.

What are, shortly, the rules as to Diet?

The following is the dietary scale now in force in all prisons :—

	European and Burghers.			Natives.			Punishment Diet.
Articles.	Full. oz.	Ordinary. oz.	Penal. oz.	Full. oz.	Ordinary. oz.	Penal. oz.	Europeans and Burghers. oz.	Natives. oz.
Bread	16	12	24	4	4	4	28	0
Rice	16	10	8	20	20	20	0	22
Meat or Fish	8	8	0	5	2½	0	0	0
Vegetables	8	8	4	4	4	4	0	0
Plantain	4	4	0	2	0	0	0	0
Sugar or Jaggery.	1	1	0	1	1	0	0	0
Coffee	½	½	0	½	½	0	0	0
Ghee	½	½	0	½	½	0	0	0
Onions	½	½	0	½	½	0	0	0
Salt and Pepper	¾	¾	¾	¾	¾	¾	0	¾

Curry stuffs.—A sufficient quantity.

The quantities specified are a day's consumption for an adult, and are served out at three meals: one at 5·30 A.M., consisting of bread, coffee, &c.; one at 11 A.M., consisting of one-half of the remaining articles; and the remainder at 5·30 P.M.

In the case of juvenile offenders under sixteen years of age a deduction is made of one ounce of bread, six ounces of rice, and one-fifth of the ration of meat.

Ordinary Full Diet is only given to convicted prisoners who have been actually two years in Jail.

Penal Diet is given to convicted prisoners with sentences of two months and under, during the whole of their term; to other convicted prisoners on two days in each week during the first three months of their sentences.

Ordinary Diet is given to all unconvicted prisoners, and to all convicted not entitled to full, or liable to penal diet.

Punishment Diet is only given when specially ordered as a punishment for breach of prison rules and regulations.

As an exceptional measure, and in view of the more severe labour exacted on the Breakwater Works, and Mahara quarry, exceptions are made to the above rules from time to time.

What is the source of the water-supply; the quality of the water; and the amount of water available for each patient every day?—Water is supplied from five surface wells situated on the Asylum grounds and liable to contamination. These are provided with pumps and leaden pipes to carry the water to some wards. The water obtained from this source is soft, and abundant for the greater part of the year, and is used freely by the patients. The water for drinking purposes is filtered through silicated carbon filters and through the ordinary earthen chatties used in this country. "Owing to the drought which prevailed during the month of April, the water in the wells failed, and it was found necessary to purchase water for drinking and culinary purposes from outside." Most of the water has to be carried on men's shoulders.

What is the number of (I) Lavatories?—Ten.
(II) Baths?—Nine.
(III) Latrines?—Nine.

What is the system of sewerage?—The sewage is carried off in cemented gutters, where they pass under wards; they are covered and difficult of access. They are flushed by the water from the bath-rooms, and by water from a reservoir built for the purpose, and which is filled as required from time to time. The sewage is carried to the back of the Asylum, and thence by an open ditch often stagnant. The dry-earth system is still in operation in the latrines, and no inconvenience has yet arisen from this method of sewage disposal. The scavenging arrangements continue the same as in former years.

Are they confined to airing courts, or allowed to walk in other grounds, and sent beyond the Asylum?—They walk in the grounds, and are sent out in walking parties.

Are any means taken to amuse the patients, or to induce them to amuse themselves? Detail them.—The patients amuse themselves with music and dancing, musical instruments being provided for them. Cricket and other games form their amusement on the play-ground every evening, and they find agreeable means of diversion in their wards during the day by card-playing, draughts, native games with counters and cowries, and bagatelle.

How many religious services were held in 1882?—The Buddhist services were held as in former years.

(I) What quantity of Water is available for each patient every day?
What is the source of the Water Supply?
What is the quality of the Water?

(II) Detail the arrangements as to Baths and Lavatories.

(III) What is the system of sewerage; and what the condition of the Privies?

ANSWERS TO QUESTION II.

Western Province.

Leper Asylum, Hendala.—An ample supply. The Kelani river in the vicinity of the hospital and the wells in the hospital grounds. The quality of the water derived from these sources is comparatively pure and good; the drinking water obtained from the wells is, after filtration, free from organic taint; the river water serves the purposes of ablution, &c. There are seven bath-rooms in connection with the hospital, supplied with hot and cold water, according to the requirements of the patients. The dry-earth system is in use in well-constructed latrines, in which metal pails are placed as receptacles for the excreta and a quantity of dry and sifted earth reserved for the purpose of deodorisation. The latrines admit of the utmost cleanliness and free ventilation, and are constantly white-washed and disinfected. The sewerage is removed twice a day and buried in deep pits at a distance from the hospital.

General Hospital, Colombo.—Unlimited. Four wells. The water is conducted through iron pipes leading from these wells to two filters, Danchell's and Captain Crease's, erected at a convenient distance from the wards. Clear, soft, colourless, and free from organic impurities. Arrangements as to baths and lavatories consist of cemented baths built in each lavatory, eight in number, to which water is conducted through iron pipes leading from the different wells. There are also appliances for warm baths. The dry-earth system. Close-stool buckets are placed for the helpless patients, chiefly in the diarrhœa wards. Portable urinals for night use are constructed on the outer verandahs of each ward. The excreta, which have collected in galvanized iron buckets in the latrines, are well disinfected with a liberal supply of fine dry-earth and MacDougall's disinfecting powder, and are carted away every night by the latrine coolies, and buried at a considerable distance from the hospital.

De Soysa Lying-in Hospital, Colombo.—Unlimited. From a well in the compound. Pure water for drinking purposes is filtered before use. There are two out-houses, one on each side of the wards, and separated from them by corridors and verandahs In each range there are dry-earth latrines and bath-rooms, the latter being used as lavatories also. No sewers. Open cemented drains for surface water only. Dry-earth latrines emptied twice a day

Pánadurá.—Ad libitum. A well in the premises. It was analysed and found to be of good quality. For drinking purposes it is filtered through vegetable charcoal and coarse sand placed in alternate layers in an earthen chatty, the filtering media being often changed. There are two lavatories for males and females. Two cemented tubs are in each lavatory for bathing purposes, and water is conveyed to them by means of iron pipes, leading from a cistern close to the well. Dry-earth system. There are two latrines situated at convenient distances from the wards, and in each are placed three zinc buckets with dry earth in them; the buckets are cleansed twice daily, and their contents buried far away from the hospital.

Kalutara.—Unlimited. The water is supplied by two wells. The water is soft and very good for drinking purposes. There are two baths connected with the male wards, and one with the female. These baths are situated on a line with the latrines, and connected with the wards by means of covered corridors. The baths are cemented, and have communicating pipes with an elevated cistern near the well. Most of the patients are allowed to bathe in the river, under the supervision of an attendant; others have their baths within the hospital. The drains are superficial and cemented, and carry off the storm water into a canal situated outside the hospital. The latrines are all built on the dry-earth system, and are provided with zinc buckets, the cleanliness of which is attended to by the latrine cooly.

Kégalla.—Unlimited. Two wells in the Medical Officer's quarters adjoining the hospital. Of good quality, pure, wholesome, and refreshing. The patients bathe in streams close to the hospital. Tubs placed in the bath-room are available for warm baths. The sewage of the hospital is buried on hilly grounds, about a quarter of a mile to leeward of the building. There are no privies. There are two latrines—one for males and the other for females—conducted on the dry-earth system.

Ratnapura.—An unlimited quantity. Water is obtained from a reservoir fed by a stream and which is connected with the hospital by piping. Good. There is a bath-room divided into two compartments for males and females, fitted with tubs. Convalescents are allowed to bathe in the river which passes by the hospital grounds. The surface system of drainage obtains here. Latrines are conducted on the dry-earth system with efficiency.

Negombo.—As much as each patient wants. For cooking and drinking, water is supplied by the contractor who obtains it from some wells near the hospital. For all other purposes water is obtained from wells in the hospital premises. The water used for cooking and drinking is of good quality, and is the best that can be obtained in the town. There is one lavatory for the females, and three lavatories for the males. For bathing, water is obtained from the wells in the hospital premises. There are no privies, but there is a latrine for the females and three latrines for the males, which are all conducted on the dry-earth system. The filth from these latrines is removed every night in a cart to an estate about three miles from town.

North-Western Province.

Kurunégala.—The supply of water is unlimited. The water is obtained from two wells in the hospital grounds. The quality of the water is good. It is colourless, and free from organic impurities. It is filtered through sand and charcoal for drinking purposes. There are separate bath-rooms for males and females. There is a good stream flowing past the hospital in which the convalescent patients prefer to bathe. Warm baths are given when necessary. There is a latrine for males and another for females on the dry-earth system. The contents of the buckets are removed twice a day and buried at a distance from the hospital.

Puttalam.—An ample quantity of water is available for each patient every day. A well (reservoir) in the hospital compound, to which water is brought by pipes laid from a well at the foot of an adjacent hill. The water is of good quality. It is always filtered before use. There are two bath-rooms, one for the male and the other for the female patients; and each of them is supplied with a furnace for warming the water. Sewers are not in use; instead of privies there are two dry-earth latrines, one for the male and the other for the female patients; and the excreta are daily removed from them and buried in the jungle some distance away from the hospital. The latrines are clean and in good order.

Chilaw.—Ad libitum. A well within the premises. Good. The drinking water is subjected to filtration in an ordinary sand and charcoal filter. A tub is kept near the well and filled by the hospital servants. The patients bathe in it or take water for other ablutionary purposes. Dry-earth. There are two latrines, one for the male and the other for the female patients. The contents of them are removed twice a day and buried at a distance of about quarter of a mile from the hospital.

Márávila.—About two gallons of water are available for each patient every day. Water is obtained from two wells situate in the compound of the hospital. Water is of good quality, and free from impurities. It is fresh and cool. There are two baths, one for the male and the other for the female patients. They are kept clean and in good order. A zinc tub is set apart for the parangi patients and for others with skin affections of a contagious nature to serve as a bath. The system of sewerage is by superficial drains built round the wards of the hospital. The sewer is conveyed by these drains to without the premises of the hospital where it is covered with earth. There are no privies, dry-earth latrines are used instead of them, which are kept clean and free from odour.

Southern Province.

Galle.—Ample for all purposes. A well in the hospital premises supplies the water for washing purposes, &c., but that for drinking is entirely drawn from the same source as that used for the prisoners, viz., Labuduwa, about 3 miles from town. The water from the hospital well is not sufficiently pure for drinking purposes. It is therefore got from Labuduwa as stated above. This water is of very good quality (the troops here being supplied with the same), and is always carefully filtered before use. There are bath-rooms with tubs in them for the use of both male and female patients. The dry-earth system has been in use ever since the hospital was occupied, and answers admirably well. All the closets are in good order.

Mátara.—The quantity of water allowed to each patient daily is unlimited. Water is obtained from a public well in Pallimulla, situated at the foot of a hill known as Brown's Hill. Very good, clear, soft, palatable, and free from organic impurities. There are bath-rooms attached to each latrine, but the patients prefer bathing in an enclosure in the Mátara river which runs by the hospital. The refuse is carried away by good drains to the low ground by the bank of the river, and ultimately washed into it. There are no privies; the latrines are conducted on the dry-earth principle, the soil cleaned out daily, carted away, and buried on the beach.

Hambantota.—About six gallons each for cooking and drinking purposes. A well out of town sunk at the foot of the sand hills. Good. There is a bath-room which is only used by patients who are unable to walk, but those who can walk resort to a public well or to a tank close to the hospital. The latrines are on the dry-earth system. The excreta are removed and buried twice daily in a neighbouring jungle.

Tangalla.—About six gallons. Water is obtained from a well in the town which is situated close to the hospital. Unsatisfactory. The drinking water is therefore always boiled and filtered. Patients bathe in a bath-room in the hospital premises. The water is procured from the well that supplies water for drinking. There are no privies. There is a latrine which adjoins the bath-room. It is conducted on the dry-earth system. The latrine buckets are emptied into the sea twice a day.

Eastern Province.

Trincomalee.—The quantity is unlimited. A spring well in the compound paved and walled. Light, clear, and properly filtered. A bath-room with tub for males, and the same arrangement for females. The dry-earth system is the one in force, the sewerage being buried at the sea-side some distance from the hospital.

Batticaloa.—Any quantity of water is available for each patient every day, on the spot, except in time of extreme drought, when it is derived from a never-failing well close to the esplanade. A deep well in the hospital premises. Good, clear, and refreshing. There are two separate buildings in the shape of baths and lavatories, for the use of men and women, without any connection with each other. They have wooden tubs in each of them filled with water for bathing. There is no regular system of sewerage; but the hospital, being built on a plot of high ground, has on all sides every facility for surface drains to carry off the monsoon rains and keep the premises clean and dry, even in wet weather. The dry-earth system has long superseded the use of privies, without the offensive effluvia proceeding from the latter.

Northern Province.

Mullaittivu.—As much as required in the hospital premises. Two wells in the hospital premises. Brackish, being percolation from the neighbouring tanks, &c., but properly filtered for drinking purposes by a large-sized Lipscombe's filter which is in use. There are two separate permanent buildings—one for each sex—and they are provided with separate spouts from one of the wells to conduct water to the baths. There is no system of sewerage, but there are two permanent latrines with urinals attached to each of the bath-rooms—one for each sex—worked on the dry-earth system; quite clean and in order.

Vavuniya-Vilankulam.—The quantity is unlimited. Water is supplied by two wells in the hospital premises. Fresh and good, but contains a metallic substance (mica) during drought. It is always filtered before use; filtering media are frequently changed. Two cemented baths—one for the male and the other for female patients—filled daily with water by the hospital attendants. Surface system of drainage obtains here. Two latrines for males, and one for females. The dry-earth system is adopted in all. The excreta are removed daily and buried in the jungle. Close-stool buckets are kept for helpless patients.

Point Pedro.—Limited in quantity, especially in dry weather, and is about a gallon per head on an average. From the two wells in the hospital premises. Best water in this district. There are two bath-rooms, one for the patients in the male ward, and the other for the patients in the female ward. Each bath-room is provided with water-bank, and water is supplied from the two wells which are near to each bath-room. The patients take their bath as prescribed. There are two latrines, one for the use of the patients in the male ward, and the other for the use of the patients in the female ward. Each latrine is provided with two cast-iron buckets, and is carried on by the dry-earth system. Both are in good condition.

Central Province.

Kandy.—Unlimited. Water is supplied by the Municipality. Good. The water is filtered before being used. There are two bath-rooms for the use of the European wards, one large bath-room for the native male wards, and another for the female patients. There is a main sewer under ground. The privies are all on the dry-earth system, the contents of the boxes being daily removed out of the hospital grounds.

Gampola.—A sufficiency, the water supply being ample. The well in the hospital premises. Soft, clean and pure. Water from the well is pumped into a reservoir. This is carried by means of cast-iron pipes to lavatories, situated outside the wards, but communicating with them by covered passages. The lavatories are provided with tubs. By means of solid masonry drains—some open and others covered—which carry off the rain water and the water from the lavatories, kitchens, etc. The latrines, which are on the dry-earth system, are in two sets, those for females separate from others intended for males, each being provided with a place for storing dry-earth. They are clean, and free from any smells, the deposit being removed and buried daily.

Badulla.—Ad libitum for the first half of the year. A sufficiency for cooking and drinking purposes during the remainder of the year, as also for washing for those patients who could not be sent out to bathe. Badulla-oya from January to July. From a spout quarter of a-mile from hospital, from August to December. This was owing to the pipe conveying water from the ella to the hospital being choked, and the anicut undergoing repairs. Hard; not very good (passed through charcoal and pebbles in two filtering tanks from January to July.) Boiled and filtered through sand and charcoal in perforated earthen chatties before use. Two baths, one for males and the other for females. During the second half of the year convalescents were sent to the ella to bathe. The dry-earth system is effectually carried out. There are two latrines, one for males, with six seats, and the other for females, with four seats.

Mātale.—An almost unlimited supply. The water is obtained from a spring about a mile from the town. It is conveyed to the hospital in iron pipes, and is the same as that with which the town is supplied. The water is hard. It is sufficiently pure for drinking purposes. It is always filtered before use. The filters are the ordinary chatty ones containing charcoal and sand, and they are kept very clean. There are five bath-rooms attached to the hospital—three for males and two for females. These are situated at each end of the building, and are quite distinct from the wards. There are covered passages leading to them. The bath tubs are filled by coolies, and they are cleaned immediately after use. The dry-earth system of conservancy is in vogue here. The night soil is removed and buried in pits at a good distance from the hospital. The system answers admirably. The dry-earth latrines are in a very satisfactory condition. They are always kept scrupulously clean, and are frequently lime-washed, and the floors and lower portions of the walls are tarred.

Nuwara Eliya.—The quantity of water available for each patient is unlimited. The water supply is derived from a mountain stream that flows past the hospital and comes direct from a water-fall behind the hospital grounds. It is good and wholesome. The drinking water is carried by means of pipes from a part of the stream above the hospital premises. It is also filtered through sand and charcoal. The filters are in good order. There are separate bath-rooms for males and females, and the water from the stream close by is carried to them. In the male bath-room there is a copper boiler for the preparation of hot water. There are separate latrines for males and females; both are conducted on the dry-earth system. A special attendant is employed to look after them and bury the excreta daily. They are in good order.
